PLANNERS OUTLINE STUDY OF LAND NEEDED FOR THE CAMPBELL BUSINESS AREA

Important steps are to be taken on Thursday evening, September 24 by the Campbell Planning Commission when a study outline for the downtown area will be formulated. John M. Chargin, commission chairman, said today that city street planning will be discussed. The commission will seek to define the downtown area for study by its boundaries. There will be a report made by the committee seeking to determine the best use of funds alloted in the city budget, the points under consideration being:

1. Determine the best area for commercial development according to population, trading zone and purchasing power.
2. Determine the parking area needed according to surveys at selected locations by percentage of capacity for hourly use.
3. Study off street parking project and its cost through a study of the physical layout of the business district, a plan for off street parking to serve it, acquisition of property and development cost.

The planning commission has already submitted to the city council for consideration and adoption, a zoning ordinance and map, for which a public hearing on October 5 has been set at the regular council meeting.

Community Chest Drive Set For Moreland Area

Campbell Community Chest drive charman E. F. Tablak, said yesterday that Moreland School district, which is part of the Campbell Community Chest area, will be canvassed by volunteer solicitors during the week of September 28th.

Tablak explained that while the Campbell area was covered during last night's one day drive, the scattered population in the Moreland area made it impossible to adequately cover it in one day.

Moreland collections are being conducted by the Parent Teachers' Association under the direction of Mrs. James E. Bruce, 751 Rosalia, president of Moreland PTA.

Campbell home owners, who were not contacted during last night's drive, Tablak said, will have an opportunity to contribute when volunteer Chest workers conduct a follow-up during the week starting September 16 through the 23rd.

In addition to a thorough coverage of residential sections of the city, Tablak said various business sections would be solicited for contributions to Campbell's Community Chest during period September 14-26, headed by service clubs and other leaders.

In the downtown Campbell area, Fred Jones, former owner of Jone's Service Station and chairman of the Boy Scout commission will head a group of Chest workers.

Harry Mansfield, of Keesling Ave. will be in charge of workers soliciting in the Hamilton Meridian business area.

Cambrian merchants should expect F. A. Ellis of Campbell Lions Club or one of his representatives to call. In the Cypress school area business section, R. K. DuVall of Henry Ave. is the official leader of Chest representatives in the Campbell drive, Tablak said.

Frank Knox, Campbell pharmacist leads the group soliciting in the Bascom and West San Carlos business section.

SARATOGA TAKES STEPS TOWARD INCORPORATION

Initial steps were taken last night in Saratoga looking toward an early vote on incorporation as a city of the sixth class. Representatives from the Saratoga Lions Club, the Quito Merchants Association, Saratoga Chamber of Commerce and the Saratoga Merchants Association comprised the investigating committee.

Admiral Fred G. Crisp, the chairman for the Lions group spearheaded the committee and presented the 15-page report. He stated last night that this is not necessarily an endorsement for incorporation, but rather an approval of the move for a decision by the electorate. There were 64 people present and the discussion was both pro and con. The report was accepted by both the Merchants and the Chamber of Commerce organizations by a unanimous vote. A permanent committee was voted to continue the program until it is submitted to vote, this committee to be named later by the respective organizations.

Boundaries of the proposed incorporated area would overlap some of the Campbell high school district and the Campbell Union grammar school district, by taking a pie-shaped bite along Quito Road and back along the Saratoga-Santa Clara road. It includes the Moreland school district which also is a part of the Campbell High school district.

Result of the committee's survey is the proposed incorporation of an area approximately 15 square miles, containing a population of an estimated 6780 persons and having an assessed valuation of $7,500,000. Based on a suggested 50 cent per $100 assessed valuation tax rate, the report proposed a city administration of four paid policement, two patrol cars, two paid firemen to augment the existing Volunteer Fire Department, a planning board, city clerk, part time city attorney and treasurer, and street maintainance department.

Increased taxes for property owners within the proposed city limits were explained in the report. Persons now living within the present Saratoga Fire District would have a direct 24 cent tax increase having already been taxed 26 cents for the present fire protection. This increase is further reduced, it was pointed out, by the reduction in utility rates. Property owners in the Quito Park area would have a reduction in their fire protection rates from the present Central County Fire District rate of 30 cents.

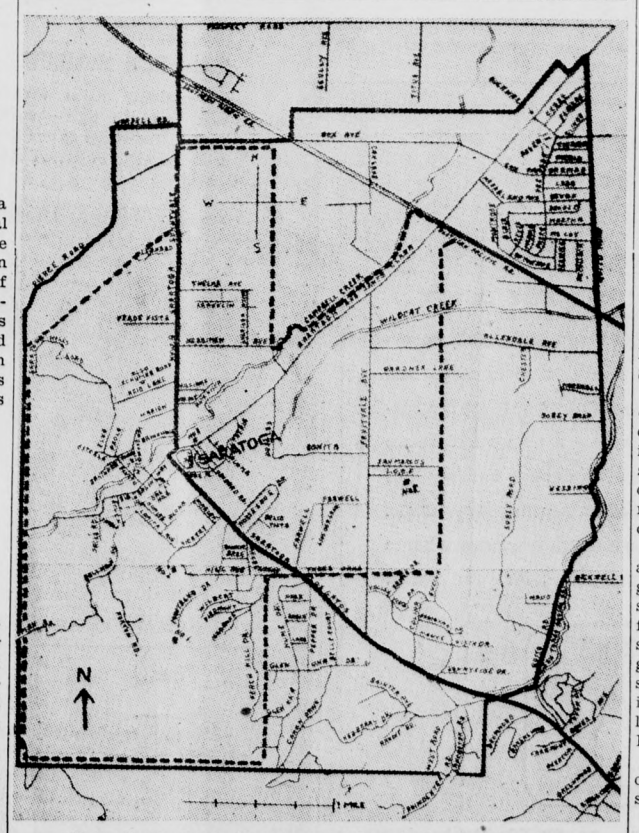
Annual cost of providing the city services outlined in the report was set at $101,500. Anticipated revenue based on the 50 cent proposed tax rate, according to the report, is $101,500. State monies, which now go to the County would account for $52,500 of the anticipated revenue. Other revenue, property taxes, $37,500; Business Licenses, $2,500; Miscellaneous licenses, $500; Court fines, $4,000; Franchises $3,500; Building permits, $3,000; Subdivision fees, $1,500.

A break-down of the expenditures were, for administration, $20,000; Police Dept., $27,000; Fire Dept., $22,000; Street Maintainance, $10,000; Engineering, $5,000; Planning, $4,000; Parks, $500; Miscellaneous, $3,000; Capital expenditures, $10,000.

Other governmental necessities such as sanitation and health, and library, the report explained, would be continued under county supervision.

Recommendation of the committee was for a permanent group to be formed of interested groups and individuals to continue the investigation and take the necessary action to brig about an election on the proposed incorporation.

The white spruce fresuently reaches a height of 150 feet with a diameter as great as four feet.



Map above shows the proposed boundaries for Saratoga in the event it incorporates as a city as proposed at a meeting there last night. The area embraces fifteen square miles, has an estimated population of 6780 and an assessed valuation of about seven and a half million dollars. Some of the area overlaps the Campbell Union Grammar school district and the Moreland school district.

MERCHANTS ASK CITY FOR FUNDS FOR STREET YULE DECORATIONS; REPORT IS DUE AT NEXT MEETING

Merchant representatives will learn Monday night if the city will contribute part of the cost of installing Christmas decorations throughout the downtown Campbell area. The matter is in committee for study. Verle Grizzle, president of Campbell Chamber of Commerce was spokesman for a group from the chamber, Merchant's Stamp Association, and Campbell Junior Chamber of Commerce which requested a $500 allotment from city's general funds. Council was also asked to furnish labor to set up, remove, and store materials until next season.

Councilmen balked at the amount requested because, Mayor Richard W. Morton and councilma Joseph V. Gomes said, funds for the city planning commission, public works, fire and police department have been cut to keep budget as low as possible.

"Of necessity, city department budgets have been cut to keep the tax rate down", Gomes said,, "I can't see adding an extra $500 city expense, however worthy these projects may be."

Grizzle said that if the city could contribute $300, he was fairly sure that local service clube would furnish labor for installing and removing decorations. Grizzle said he would like city officials to clear with public utility companies for use of street installations.

Don Gracier, president of Campbell Junior Chamber of Commerce said proposed contribution by the city would amount to less than twenty per cent of the cost. Merchant Associations have offered $500 and he said more would be raised by merchant contributions.

SCHOOLS ENROLL 5685 STUDENTS ON FIRST DAY

Growth of the Campbell area was evidenced Monday morning in the throngs of children returning to area schools. Over 3,900 children entered classrooms in the elementary school district which is 515 more than the opening enrollment last year, district superintendent William C. Henley said yesterday. Elementary schools enrolled 3988 pupils. The enrollment is expected to reach the 4200 mark through the year, Henley said. Last year's opening enrollment totaled 3473.

Parking space was at a premium, and classrooms were over filled with parents registering 540 children at the new Hamilton School on opening day. So many were registered at Hamilton, Henley said, that the school is unable to accommodate the fifth and sixth grades. These classes are being taught at Campbell Grammar School.

Henley said Moorpark is another district school, along with Hamilton, that is considered 'critical' from a growth standpoint. As many as 45 pupils have been placed in various classrooms to handle the 800 pupil enrollment.

New Cherry Lane School if completed by the expected December date, will relieve overcrowded Campbell Grammar School, according to the superintendent. Cherry Lane classes for first, second and third grades are being taught at Campbell Grammar School.

Campbell High School's 82 teachers and administrators greeted a total of 1697 students on opening day last Monday. This figure is 305 more students than registered on opening day, last year, superintendent Laurance J. Hill said. Hill said High school facilities had been streamlined and new administrative policies had been put into effect. He reported a smooth and well coordinated opening day

Hill said that a regular teacher's institute conference would be held at James Lick High School starting at 7:45 p. m. tomorrow for subject area conference. At the conference each department will compare notes, swap ideas and generally study programs of other schools in the county, Hill explained.

Yell Leaders Of The Peninsula To Meet In Campbell

Directed by the spirit commission of the Campbell Union High School, a yell leader conference has been scheduled here for Saturday, September 26 at which teachers and students interested in this activity will be attending from all Santa Clara Valley and Palo Alto leagues and from most San Mateo County high schools.

Purpose of the conference, according to C. P. Klassen, spirit commission advisor is to share ideas for a better and more wholesome school spirit. Barbara Duton of Campbell is to be general chairman with Sharon Hannibal, head cheer leader, assisting.

The program which starts at 9 a. m. with registration in the girl's gymnasium will include a general session with a dynamic speaker from Stanford. After the general session there will be sectional gloups and advisor conferences to smooth out the program on returning to the conference. A noon luncheon will be served by Mrs. Elinor Gleed.

In the afternoon there will be an outstanding speaker and a demonstration of yell leadership.

Dale Dickson was fined $20 in Judge Paul W. Crawford's Justice Court Tuesday for creating a disturbance on Railway Avenue. His companion Hazel Tackett, could not be located for questioning, Campbell police said.

PARKING SIGNS WILL STAY

One hour parking signs on north side of Campbell Avenue, in front of Campbell Grammar School will stay and the city traffic ordinance will remain as written, council members voted, after Councilman James B. Arends reported results of a meeting with Grammar School officials and Campbell merchants. School officials withdrew their request that traffic signs be removed to permit all day parking in front of the school.

Earlier the city council, following a letter of protest from Campbell merchants, had directed city attorney Joseph A. Bonacina to prepare an amendment to the city traffic ordinance permitting removal of signs. At a later meeting Bonacina was asked to defer preparation of amendment until after meeting with merchants and school officials.

TRAFFIC LIGHTS GET GO SIGN

Campbell will have $8400 worth of traffic lights at the San Jose Los Gatos Road and Hamilton Avenue intersection as soon as city engineer Mark E. Thomas gets written confirmation on use of state funds for the project, he informed the council Monday. Thomas said Santa Clara County has offered to contribute $4200 toward the project, and has been notified that the balance could be obtained from Chapter 20 funds. Thomas was authorized at the meeting, Monday, to notify state officials to proceed with the design.

POLICE MAY GET NEW CAR

Senior police officer Robert J. Locke was directed to investigate provisions for leasing an additional police car, after he had informed council members that the present car had 49,000 miles registered, but that the motor wear was equivalent to 100,000 miles. Locke also reported that repairs on the car had amounted to $350 in the past two months.

POLICE PAY SCALE CHANGED

Council members granted officer Locke's request that wage scale bracket from patrolman be changed to permit top pay within three years instead of the five year period now in effect. Request was in line with a similar scale in effect for city firemen.

Pay change permits a fifteen dollar raise annually for the first two years and a twenty dollar raise for the third year to reach the maximum pay of $350.

Permission was granted to Campbell Community Chest drive chairman E. F. Tablak to operate a sound truck through the city streets September 16, from 10 a. m. to 5 p. m. providing vehicle would not operate in vicinity of schools.

After he and Mrs. Tippett had penetrated to areas where few natives had ever seen white people, a climax of the trip was the Bishop's induction as a "khum-ukunda" or high chief of two Belgian Congo tribes, in impressive ceremonies. Villa Montalvo Activities

By Ted Rosenfeld

"THE FAN"

The wilting summer heat, last Sunday afternoon, at the Villa Montalvo Outdoor Theater did not appear to dim the exuberance and the smartness with which director Robert Braun's Hillbarn Summer Theater players, under auspices of Friends of Montalvo, presented Carlo Goldini's sparkling 18th Century farce, 'The Fan.'

To gain the Countess's influence in solving love affairs, some town folk (Italy) sought to outdo each other by catering to her 'illustrious highness's' fancy for fans. Considerable hilarity is made over an illusive fan intended for the Countess.

The characters included a count, countess, cobbler, inn-keeper, idiot, pretty girls, all masked.

The plot is just fun and the very able cast seemed to be enjoying every moment of it. Robert Branus' flop in a tub of water, fully clothed, was envied by the sweltering audience.

Approximately 25 members of the Art Lover' Club of Metropolitan Oakland, accompanied by Mrs. R. L. Cunningham, president, and Mrs. Anna Rodolf, art director, visited Villa Motalvo last Friday for the first time.

They take an active part in practically all art activities in the Bay Area and were full of praise over their impressions of Villa Montalvo.

Dr. and Mrs. E. L. Hewitt and friends, Rex and wife, Renee Ashlock, art painter of Berkeley, spent Sunday with the Vickerys.

Mrs. Hewitt is author of children's books of early California history, many of which are required reading in California schools.

George Houle, composer, and his wife, Constance Crawford-Houle, short story writer, will remain at Villa Montalvo preparing themselves for a research venture in Europe in their respective fields of endeavor in November.

Enthusiasm runs high for good things, which we hope, will result from decision of Judge Fitzpatrick involving status of Villa Montalva Tuesday, Sept. 15th. Many from this area have planned attendance of the court hearing.

Cupertino Sewer Program Progress

First steps toward sewerage and storm drainage development in the Cupertino area were taken last Thursday night at a meeting of the Cupertino-Monta Vista Improvement Association board of directors, George Voss presiding.

Since there are two different types of organized sanitary districts, one county controlled and one locally controlled, qualified experts representing both types will be procured to state their respective cases at the next general meeting of the association. Members are urged to plan now to attend the next meeting in order to learn and decide the merits of both sids of this vital phase in the development of the modern community. A committee to explore and guide the future development of this project probably will be named at this meeting, to be held in the Collins school building, Cupertino, October 13.

The secretary of the Association, Anthony Lillio, was directed to write a letter of commendation to Mel Hewlins for his exceptional attention and patience in preparing the Cupertino-Monta Vista zoning petition

Quito Resident Wins State Fair Designing Award

Mrs. Shirley Druge of Quito Road is one local girl who went to the big city of San Francisco and made good. A maternity smock which she designed won first prize in that group—a gold medal at the judging for the State Fair in Sacramento. Her garment was modelled on Marjorie Trumball's TV show, and was a black background chambray with gold metallic and white stripes, and white knit inset at neck-line.

Mrs. Druge has been employed at the G. R. Reynolds dress manufacturing company, which sells its cottons under the name of Reyco and its Maternity line is called "Blossom Time." Mrs. Druge's prize-winning garment will be sold throughout the United States.

Mrs. Druge studied dress designing in Paris, after having completel a tour of duty in the WACS during W.W. II, during which she was stationed in Pars. Two of the Druge children, Celeste and Alan, attended El Quito Park School, and the third child, Camille, is about two years old.

PAKISTAN RECIPES EXPLAINED AT FAIR

SACRAMENTOJOne of the best known Pakistan dishes, Seekhi Kabab, was featured today at the International Cookery demonstration at the California State Fair.

Dressed in typical Pakistanian garb, the Sari, Mrs. N. Husain made a colorful figure as she narrated and demonstrated some main recipes from the many national dishes of Pakistan. Today's cookery presentation was under the arangement of the Consulate of Pakistan. r

Mrs. Husain explained that two important requirements for making Seeki Kababs are pointed iron rods about one-half inch in diameter with wooden handles and a charcoal fire. A gas flam can be used if necessary.

Ground beef is the main ingredient and is mixed with such seasonings as cloves, black pepper, cardamon seeds, carraway, red pepper, salt, ginger powder, gram, and onion. After being thoroughly mixed, the meat is placed on the rods and roasted to a medium brown. Onion rings and "Chutney" (sauce) garnish this dish which is used frequently in Pakistan.

Last year Walker averaged a phenomenal 10.9 yards a carry from his halfback post.

SPARTAN GRIDDERS START FRIDAY; MEET U. OF IDAHO UNDER LIGHTS

San Jose State opens its football schedule Friday, meeting University of Idaho, the first four Pacific Coast Conference opponents on the Spartan slate. Kickoff time is 8 p. m. at San Jose.

This will be the first time San Jose has entertained a PCC school at Spartan Stadium, but the third meeting between the Vandals and Spartans. In 1946, the Golden Raiders whipped Idaho, 26-14 but in 1951 the Vandals overwhelmed the Spartans, 40-7.

No one is more curious about the perfomance of the 1953 Spartan squad than Bob Bronzan, youthful San Jose State mentor. Nearly 70 per cent of the Golden Raider squad is composed of junior college transfers and freshmen, players who will be performing for Bronzan for the first time.

The Spartans will have a thorough test in the opener. Idaho, not normally among the upper echelon of the PCC, is expecting one of its best teams in history, certainly the strongest since the 1927 Vandal team earned conference co-championship honors.

Babe Curfman, in his third year at Moscow, has a veteran unit solidified by 22 lettermen from the tough 1952 Vandal aggragation which ranked 31th in the nation in rushing defense.

Curfman's line is paced by Burdette Hess, 220-pound geology major who, ranks among Idaho's all-time greats. Captain Mel Bertrand, aggressive center tied a national record by blocking nine punts during the season.

Ace of the Vandal backfield is Jay Buhler, a junior playing his third varsity year. Buhler led the PSS last year in kickoff returns, averaging 28 yards per return.

Driving Idaho's T will be George Eidam, returning quarterback, Wayne Patrick, highly-touted transfer from Boise J. C., and Bob Haines, rated the best Idaho passer in years.

Against this club, Bronzan will send a Spartan team with good, but untested depth. The veteran line is thin, except at tackle where John Hamber, Sal Cardinalli, Jon Petersen, Jack Biglen and Joe Muldowney hold forth.

Veteran guard Dale Sumers, hampered with a twisted knee, is expected to play, sharing duties with Stan Galas, rugged transfer from Modesto. Tom Louderback, in from Rosa J. C., will start at the other guard with Veteran Tom Yagi at center.

Two lightweights, Mervin Lopes and Ralph Daehler, both at 175, are expected to open at ends, with veteran Bill Walsh (190), Clarence Wessman (215) and Charles Hardy (175 not far behind.

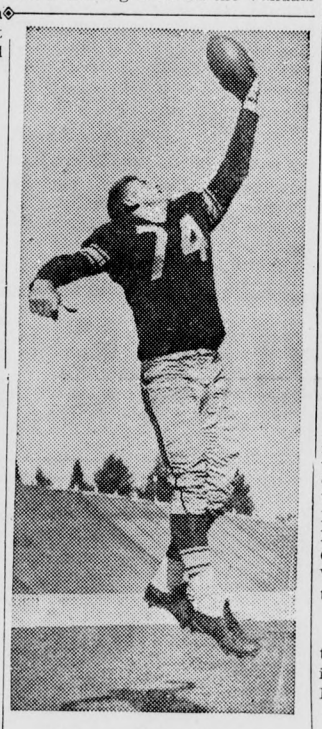
Larry Rice, a senior, will probably get the opening call at quarterback with Benny Pierce expected to share the load.

The best halfback corps in recent Spartan history will be thrown at the rugged Vandal line. Veterans Larry Matthews, Bill Walker and Gene Goldberg will receive support from Herman Stokes, J. C. All-American for two years at Compton, Al Brown, Dick O'Neill, Dave Fanner and Pat Hiram, all J. C. transfers. Three new men, Joe Ulm, Sam Dawson and Jerry Taylor, will battle for the fullback spot in this game.

Both Idaho and San Jose State will average 199 pounds on the forward wall with the Vandals going 184 in the backfield and the Spartan back 178.

Added highlights to the 1953 inaugural will be the pre-game and halftime activities of the District Marine Corps band and the famed Marine drill team from the Electronics School at Treasure Island.

The three-state Associated Oil broadcast of the game will be aired over the following stations: KEEN, San Jose, KROW. Oakland, KTBR. Modesto, KFXD, Boise, KLIX, Twin Falls, KBIO, Burley, KWIK, Pocatello, KIFI, Idaho Falls, KRPL, Moscow, KNEW, Spokane, and KVNI, Coeur d'Alene.



Clarence Wessman, 235-lb 6-ft. 4 in. San Jose State sophomore, is one of the brightest prospects in Spartan history and seems destined to take his place among gridiron greats in the tradition of Bill McColl and Leon Hart. The huge Hayward native is a splendid receiver and has all the other physical assets to achieve stardom.

CUHS Coaches See Banner Year In Many Sports

Sports minded teachers, administrators, and the Campbell High School student body hope the changes made in the High School athletic department this year will result, as some sport sages have predicted, even at this early date, in one of the best athletic years Campbell High ever recorded.

New director of athletics, George Miskulin is enthusiastic about prospective athletic successes as well as the various coaches.

Miskulin, who last year was varsity baseball and wrestling coach, will be replaced on the diamond by Mel Stein, a graduate of San Jose State who was a basketball, football leterman there. He is now busy as varsity football line coach.

In charge as coach of matmen, is Ken Duddridge, a graduate of Santa Barbara State who lettered in football at his alma mater. Duddridge, too, is assistant coach of varsity football.

Len Scroggins, who managed the CUHS swimming pool during the summer recreation period, will take over as full time swimming coach. Scroggins was a member of the undefeated University of Oregon swimming champions of 1935, '36 and '37, Pacific Coach Champions for one year and Northwest Champ for three years.

Fred Gugat, last year's swim coach, will have charge of the tennis team, replacing Hal Drummond, who leaves Campbell High this year to assume duties as principal of Big Valley High School, at Adin, Modoc County. Junior Morgan, as in the past will be active in Track and football, training for which was received at San Jose State.

Bert Robinson, former San Jose State basketball and football star is coaching C and D basketball squads which started off with a bang last Monday.

Jim Muir, who last year fielded one of the two best football squads in the Santa Clara Valley Athletic League, will remain as head football coach. He too is a state graduate who lettered in basketball and football.

Aside from varsity and lightweight football, C and D basketball squads are practicing daily in prepaations for contests with valley league teams. Schedule as now set up, accoding to Miskulin, pits the Campbell lightweights against Fremont Oct. 1, at Campbell; at Live Oak, Oct. 8; at Mt. View, Oct. 15; at Campbell Oct. 22, at Washington Oct. 29; and with Santa Clara at Campbell November 5.

Vacationing? Don't forget to take along a supply of paper bags in the car in which to put trash. Help keep our roadsides clean.

One of the youngest couaches at a major school, Bob Bronzan, of San Jose State is nevertheless considered one of the more astute men in the profession. He always fields smartly-drilled, well-ground teams, win or lose. In general they win more than they lose and in 1952 his Spartans ranked second in the nation in total offense and fourth in rushing among major collegiate teams.

Unsung Tom Yagi holds down the pivot post for San Jose. A product of Livingston High, where Spartan coach Bob Bronzan held his first coaching job, Yagin is a good offensive center and fine linebacker. A junior, he earned his first varsity award in 1952.

San Tomas Scouts Set Up Ambitious Program For Year

When the newly organized parents group for Boy Scout troop 30 met at the San Tomas school cafetorium on Monday evening they selected Scout 30 Scouters as the name for their group. William Cahill, president of the Scouters, introduced Jacob C. Fischer, new principal of the San Tomas school who welcomed this sponsoring organization and assured them of full assistance from the school staff.

Tentative plans for a scout building on Lucot Way which might be owned by the sponsored, were discussed by Steve Anderson who reported on the blue print and the necessary steps.

Named historian for the troop was Gary Standish.

Explorer scout Russ Cahill told of plans for a progressive Christmas party, advanced camping including survival hikes and snow hikes for older scouts, a study of forest conservation and an explorer breakfast.

Explorer Scout Kenneth Wilson told of tentative plans for troop members visiting a large ranch in New Mexico where skill and leadership, horsemanship and craftsmanship might be objectives with the scheduling of frontier style pack trips.

Ken Wilson told of an excursion trip this Saturday to Moffett Field where officials will give fire prevention instructions. Scouts expecting to go should assemble at the San Tomas school at 8:30 a. m.

After a letter from Mrs. D. J. Gosnell was read relinquishing their sponsorship of the troop, Harry Hunter, the scoutmaster told of renewing the charter with volunteer committeemen who are:

Harry Hunter, David Swan, Ken Wilson, J. T. Barnett, David Freer, J. T. McClendon, Eric Shuart, William Cahill and Steven Anderson.

At the next meeting of the scouters on October 8 at the San Tomas Cafetorium merit awards are to be made, it was announce...

Year-round air conditioners for homes, combining heating and cooling in one system for the entire house, are expected to account for more than a third of the production of the two-billion-dollar industry by 1963. Room units, now enjoying a vogue, will account for a fifth of the total, according to a prediction by the head of the Carrier Corp.

The term "bug" and "insect" are not synonymous. The true bug is a members of one particular family of insects, the Hemiptera, which includes over 55,000 known species and over 4,000 from North America alone. Most of them feed on plants, and have well-developed piercing and sucking mouth parts which are characteristic.

When we came West, we learned...

Gas and electricity are cheap in California

Among the many advantages of California living, one of the first discovered by Mr. and Mrs. Trudel when they moved West last year was the low cost of gas and electricity. They found these services cost far less here than in their former home.

With P. G. and E.'s combined rates actually lower now than in 1938, let bargain gas and electricity do more of your work . . . give you added leisure.

How P. G. and E.'s low rates save the Trudels money

In their Stockton home, the Trudels use these appliances for more pleasant, convenient living:

The Trudels' P. G. and E. bill (recent month) . . . $10.37

In their former home, the same amount of gas and electricity would cost $25.67

SQUANDERBUST

A growing conviction is rising in our country that our foreign aid program has been horribly, misdirected.
We have expended some $40 billion in an attempt to buy "friendship" abroad. To date, it appears to have been little more than a vain, empty gesture. And this at tremendous cost to the long-suffering American taxpayer.

NO FRIENDS

Look at the record.
We haven't got a friend of substance in the world. Maybe Canada, our Siamese twin. Even Britain, our staunch ally in the two bloodiest conflicts in history now argues against us and in favor of the Commies in the Orient.
France has just undergone a general strike that may prove mortal. La Belle is so Red-ridden it can't even govern itself. Wherever our tourists turned this summer they were met by the Communist cry, "Yank, go home!"
The Italian political scene does little to assure us of continuing friendship with this strategically located country.
China, so long our warm friend, is now our enemy and Nehru of India has certainly treated us poorly during the Korean "police action".
To compound the irony, the one "friends" we may gain in Europe is Germany, twice driven to its knees by the might of the U. S. A. and now existing divided against even itself.
Forty billion dollars tribute to the cause of world peace we have paid—and for this.

GOING BROKE

Charitably, we can believe those who created and administered this debauch of America had no idea what they were doing or what the end result would be. That's the kindest thing that may be said.
But where we are going is becoming increasingly evident to the rest of us. We are going bankrupt. The inevitable showdown will come next year when Congress must determine whether the country will continue to operate with an unbalanced budget.
The only place that a substantial budget cut can be made is in military expenditures or in foreign aid. It is to be expected that the American people may not take too kindly to continuing support of nations which do not desire to trade friendship for economic assistance.

DO IT NOW

The founder of Communism once told a sardonic truth. He said it is possible to spend us into bankruptcy and so destroy us—without firing a shot.
Unless we come round into the wind, operate within the scope of natural laws, within the framework of our constitution, America will end on the rocks along with the rest of this strife-torn world.
We should all be considering the desirability of a new course in the stormy seas of international affairs. It is a complex problem, tied up with considerations of both military and economic strength. Our entire concept of tariff and foreign trade is involved as well as a determination of the most effective action from a purely military standpoint.
We must have bold, decisive leadership. There are those who believe—and rightly so—that we must also have a new blueprint for the house in which the nations of the world may live in peace.

SAFE PASSING

Give the other fellow the break of passing you safely. If you must increase your speed, wait until the passing car has returned to the proper lane in front of you and then re-pass him.

DISTRICT ATTORNEY SPEAKS TO ROTARY

District Attorney N. J. Menard gave an account of a recent District Attorney's meeting in Nevada to Campbell Rotary Club at their regular Monday meeting this week.

Menard touched on many of the problems confronting District attorneys throughout the state, the largest of which, due to the rapid growth of the area, concerns zoning problems.

Menard also mentioned the new law regulating markets and said that smaller markets, selling six per cent above cost, can meet the competition offered by super markets and other large wholesale buyers.

Bill Maderis was chairman for the day and introduced the speaker.

CAMPBELL I-LITES

by Bob Olson

...er what must have been the ...st summer in history, or at ... since 1850 (after gold was ... discovered here in the Golden ...), here we are back again for ...er 176 day school year. Most ... are glad to be back. That ...mpressed me very much this ... as I rubbed elbows with 1626 ...siastic Campbell high-school- ...gain. It hit me in the class- ... where the fellows and girls ...ted they enjoyed returning ...e routine of study, stimulat- ...lass and out-of-class discus- ... and the excitement of a ...led campus, where there ... be any dull moments for any ... for the next ten months. Ev- ...dy was genuinely glad to see ...one else again, to compare ...profits of summer jobs, the ...ies of summer vacation spots, ... richness of Santa Cruz tans.

...mpressed me in the introduc- ...teachers' meetings last Thurs- ...nd Friday, making me realize ... what an unbelievably swell ... our faculty is. As a group it ... more genuine unselfishness, ... humor, and intelligence (so- ...s well as academic) than any ... this observer has even been ...of. In most factories, offices, ..., or social orders there are ...ng cliques and the all-too- ...nt jealousies of individuals ...ing for something" (as we ... to say in the army), and will- ...o use anyone who can help ... get ahead as a rung in their ...ss ladder. But here at CUHS ...ealizes how nice it is to work ... a group where doing for ...s is a habit as well as a key- ..., and where we all enjoy ...ng together toward a com- ...goal.

...s camaraderie was evident at ... reception for new teachers ...day night on Mr. Hill's ...ant patio, too. Over coffee ...ake we met twenty-four new ...ty members who are by now ...dy part of our big happy ...l family. In columns to fol- ...we'll be introducing many of ... to you.

...e administrative staff de- ... some new organizational ... over the summer to take ... of our school's growing pains. ...are glad to report that the ... work! Never before have ...nts returned to work more ...editiously or with less conflict. ...er have we seen a high school ...tion more smoothly. The whole ...t has been divided into sec- ..., and each of us now reports ... carries problems to our divi- ... chief. Thus the main office ... are much less harassed and ... problems receive prompt at- ...on with no frustration on any- ... part.

...ere will be two groups in ...y hall this year: Textbook stu- ...s in 33 and 34 and library ref- ...ce students for full periods in ...library. Thus everyone is stim- ...ed to real study in one place or ...other.

...rs. Flagg's camera crewmen ... report directly to her aduio- ...al auditorium, thus the screen ... setter-uppers will always be ... immediate call to serve the ...sroom teacher, and a real ser- ... they perform for all of us!! ...ut the most appreciated im- ...vement becomes evident now ...ng our two lunch hours every ...n. Many of us didn't recognize ... cafeteria; it has been stream- ...d in every sense of the word. ...looks like a pleasant place to ... and is. Freshly painted, it has ...n designed for quick service. ... snack bar (designed and built ... summer under the general di- ...tion of Mr. Duncan) does away ...h all the old annoyances and ...ting, and looks to us like the ...atest eatery this side of New ...k city's automat!

...Have you heard about our ter- ...c 1953 football schedule? We ...y all home games on Friday af- ...noons, except two—when we ...et Lick there and then later ...shington at Centerville for ...at should be the "biggest Fri- ...y night of the year. Our first ...ntest will be played two weeks ...m tomorrow here, against Cas- ...mont High of Oakland. Every- ...e's pointing toward Coach Muir's ...-champions this year as "The ...ng to beat". We were picked by ...o San Francisco papers and the San Jose Sunday editions to repeat—which we'll surely do if Big Bill Gregg can live up to even half of his sensational press clippings! Come out and see us try some Friday afternoon at 3—at the same time you can thrill to our band now under the direction of San Jose Maestro, Dick Gordon, our answer to Boston's Arthur Fiedler.

In next Tuesday's first assembly of the year we'll all gain a better understanding of our democratic student body by meeting our commissioners first hand. A week from Tuesday we're looking forward to a performance by the National Transcriber's Association's blind gymnasts.

We'll be rehearsing the big events of everybody's summer for weeks to come. But for now a few quick reactions:

BIGGEST MONEY EARNER—Glenn Miller, who is said to have shown 1,431 interested tourists through the mysteries of Winchester House.

PRETTIEST BRIDE—The former Phyllis Zemer, our popular typing teacher, who tied the knot with a lucky Willow Glen teacher. She's now Mrs. James Wright and seems to be happier than ever.

BIGGEST SURPRISE — Having our much publicized baby boy, Mike, turn out to be a beautiful baby girl, Chris. Ever since July 15th she's made this scribe realize why gentlement do prefer blondes!

MOST ARISTOCRATIC VACATION—The one attendance clerk and Dean's secretary, Judy Spruit made to cultural Catalina. She said "For once in my life I felt like a duchess."

MOST PICTURESQUE VACATION—The one Eugenio Gamez made to Mexico where he says he "lived like a native and ate like an Aztec."

FREEWAY NOT TO HALT MACY PROJECT HERE

Victor Gruen, architect named yesterday to design the 100 unit Valley View Shopping Center for R. H. Macy Company at the Stevens Creek and Santa Clara-Los Gatos road area, three miles from Campbell is to meet with officials of the Macy firm and the Capital Company in San Francisco tomorrow to decide on a site. The Capital Company is the development division for the Bank of America.

The project calls for an expenditure of $6,000,000.

An important factor in the discussion tomorrow will be the possible effect on the Macy site of the proposed Route Five freeway cloverleaf which is to be built east of the tract on the Stevens Creek road. The freeway continues on through Campbell to Santa Cruz.

Gruen who is one of the outstanding architects in America today is currently in charge of constructing a $30,000,000 J. L. Hudson Co. department store of 1,000,000 squae feet in Detroit, and will shortly start construction of three or four more ringing that city," Ryan said. "This gives some indication of the high professional standing of the architect we have chosen for the Valley View operation near Campbell."

Killkare Klub Honors Couple

In observance of their annual picnc, members of the Killkare Klub of the Campbell Methodist Church were recently entertained at the home of the Galen Thompsons of Woodard road.

Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Osborne were honored by the group in celebration of their 49th wedding anniversay. The Osbornes will soon be leaving for a new residence in Stockton, where their son, Rev. Lawrence Osborne, former associate pastor of the Campbell church is now instructing at the college.

HOBBIES FILL LEISURE TIME OF LOCAL MAN

A Campbell man with an interesting part-time occupations is Ralph W. Kerr, retired chemist and writer, who manufactures perfume, shampoo, and shaving lotion at his home, 1066 Walnut Drive, and who presently has novels under consideration in New York and Boston Publishing houses

Kerr said he took up the manufacture of perfume entirely as a hobby, after retiring as a chemist from Permanente Cement Company. He has also worked as a chemist for the United States Government at Watertown Arsenal during World War I, for National Malleable Castings Co., for the Unit Cast Corporation in Toledo, Ohio, for the National Research Institute, and recently from Permenente Cement Co. Kerr said he still does some chemical consultation work.

Occupying as much of Kerr's leisure time as his perfume hobby, is his writing, experience for which was gained as a full time reporter for Kenton Daily Democrat, and the Billings (Montana) Gazette. He said he had sold feature articles to national trade magazines, to newspapers in the East and to Rosicrucian Digest.

Houghton Mifflin Publishing Company, Boston, Massachusetts, according to Kerr, has favorably reacted to a recent novel "Crucible of Conquest" a story of early western days which he recently submitted. Gold Medal publishing Company of New York has under consideration another of Kerr's novels, "The Master Tool, a modern western.

Kerr received his technical training at Oberlin College with post graduate work at Montana State College.

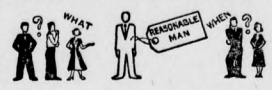
LAW IN ACTION

THE CONTRACT IS "A PLAN OF ACTION"

A contract is "a plan of action," enforceable at law. Since we all make plans, we find contracts of great use in our daily affairs.

Suppose our plan is to have me buy your car. I could pay you and drive the car away. Perhaps I want to write a check. Or suppose I want to buy the car on time. In each such case we must bargain and arrive at a plan. If I buy on time, our plan of action will involve interest and principal payments. You may demand security, such as having the car carried in your name until paid for. We must also decide who will pay for transfering ownership. If the car doesn't run, who pays for a tow car? And are you delivering the car or selling it where it stands?

If the contract does not spell out the plan in detail, misunderstandings may produce a lawsuit. So in time, our courts have developed rules for such cases. These rules state what most persons would have provided for, if they had thought about the problem. To reach its decision, the court asks what "a reasonable man" would do. What would this man believe the parties meant?



Suppose we agreed that I am to pay you $50 a month for your car. But we did not say what day the payment became due. "The reasonable man" might say that payments would be made on the first, although I may have in mind my pay day, which is the 15th.

When the contract is written, the law assumes that everything previously agreed upon has been included. So neither party can claim anything not written into the contract. But a contract can be amended by a later contract. So it is vital for the contract—the plan of action—to set forth exactly what the parties had in mind.

NOTE: The State Bar of California offers this column for your information so that you may know more about how to act under our laws.
